

KIPP (Knowledge is Power Program) Delta College Preparatory School is a tuition-free, open-enrollment charter school in Helena, Arkansas. Today, it serves 280 students in fifth through tenth grades.

The mission of KIPP/ Delta College Preparatory School is to empower our students to develop the knowledge, skills, and character traits necessary to pursue a college education and a life of value, joy, and integrity. All students work hard each day to prepare for college - that is the dream and expectation for everyone at KIPP/ Delta College Preparatory School. For more information or to make a donation to KIPP, please visit www.deltacollegeprep.org.

WIRED! has transformed KIPP Delta College Preparatory School's ability to utilize technology in our school by being PROACTIVE in their approach rather than reactive. We are depending on their support services to grow and expand. This would be infinitely more difficult without their managed services. We hope that WIRED will provide service for our organization for a long time.

SCOTT SHIREY
KIPP Delta College Preparatory
School Founder & School Director

Prior to founding KIPP Delta College Preparatory School in 2002, Mr. Shirey completed the Fisher School Leadership Program, which included intensive study at UC Berkeley's Haas School of Business. Mr. Shirey taught for three years in Baton Rouge, Louisiana where he was a Teach For America corps member. Mr. Shirey graduated Cum Laude from Colby College with a B.A. in history.